Directions: Answer these questions to the best of your ability, quote and reference the book as much as possible

1.Quote and reference two accounts of The Tree of Life in the Holy Bible. (p. 10)

2.In his book, Fr. Daoud writes "man does need to eat… but his first and main concern should always be: 'what is it that he should eat?'… and 'why should he eat this particular food?!'"(Lamei 11). How does the earthly man answer these two concerns and how does the spiritual person answer these two concerns? (p.11-12)

3. What are the three types of food? Be specific. (p.11)

4. What is life's primary purpose? (p.14)

5. After Adam and Eve's fall 5 things entered the world. What are they? (p.14)

6. At one point God deprived Man from eating of The Tree of Life? Why and how did He do that? (p.15)

7. What or who is The Tree of Life as per the New Testament? Quote and Reference. (p.15-16)

8. Explain Fr. Daoud's comparison between Adam and our Lord Jesus Christ. Quote and reference. (p.17)

9. What is the Table of Eternal Life and what function does it serve? (p.17).

10. What or who was Lot's source of blessing? Why did he abandon that source? Compare Lot's story to the story of the Tree. (p. 19-20)

11. Fr. Daoud writes: "There are always two voices: the voice of God inviting his children to rejoice and celebrate over evil… and a different voice luring man into earthly treasures" (Lamei 21). What are these two voices in the Genesis story of Abraham rescuing Lot? (p.21)

12. Who is Melchizedek? Quote and reference 3 passages. (p.20-22)

13. What did Melchizedek give Abraham? Be specific. (p. 21)

14. What is a priest, and what is his function? (p.22-23)

15. Based on the Genesis story of Abraham rescuing Lot, what do we learn about the Eucharist and who it is offered to? (p.21-22)

16. Fr. Daoud ends his contemplation on the story of Abraham by speaking on the effect of the Eucharist in general and in Abraham's life. What does he say about the effect of the Eucharist?